She walks down the street
As passers she meets
Holds her head up high
And part of her world, is just falling apart
But she leaves it all behind

Chorus

Look in her eyes, she won't go back
In her eyes, she won't go back

And she smiles to herself
Cause she needs someone else
She knows she alright
Got her own life to live
And only herself to depend on this time

Chorus

Look in her eyes, she won't go back
In her eyes, she won't go back

She walks on by
Down the street holds her head up high
She knows she bends the rules
But she's nobody's fool

And late in the night
She can love you so right
Love you all night long
She takes all the heat, she takes all she can There'll be a change from now on

Chorus

Look in her eyes, she won't go back
In her eyes, she won't go back
In her eyes

(Guitar solo)

Look in her eyes, she won't go back
