Verse 1:

You can be my warrior in the twilight,
You're the only one to withstand the fight.
Can you defeat my evil monsters tonight?
You can soar and you can fly far beyond the dark sky.

Chorus:

My hero,
There's nothing you fear, no.
We'll tip and we'll toe and off to battle you go.
My hero,
There's nothing you don't know.
You'll swing high and low and off to battle you go.
My hero, my hero.

Verse 2:

You're even more charming without the disguise.
I can't try to even deny,
The way you make me feel inside.
You're heart will be the guide,
To help you fight your way through the night.

Chorus

Bridge:

He's undefeatable, unbeatable.
He'll make it through the cold with all he knows.
He'll win the fight with all of his might.
He's undefeatable, unbeatable.

Chorus
