Verse 1:

As I move on I,
I just drift through life.
You're never gonna make it out alive,
So why try? why try? why try?
As I inhale a breath of fresh air I remember why I try.
I ignore the fact that it's all a big lie,
And partially just a waste of my sweet time.

Chorus:

I'm holding on,
And I'll make it out strong.
Even when it all goes wrong,
I just sing this song again.
La da da mhm

Verse 2:

As I lay in a field of daisies,
The remembrance of what I learned today comes to mind and I find,
That everything's gonna be okay.
Oh, I'll live today.

Chorus:

Bridge:

I close my eyes and wish for a new day.
I pray that it'll take all my pain away.
So, I'll just sit and wait till time passes over today.

Chorus
