Verse 1:

Build yourself up and I'll be the one to tear ya down.
You say you're made of stone but alone I know you'll fall.
You put yourself up so high on a pedestal.
Oh, you'll feel like a fool when it all comes tumblin' down.

Chorus:

But, Who's laughin' now?
It seems the tables turned you'll get what you deserve.
Now you're crying out sayin' "things have changed, I didn't mean a thing."
Who's laughin' now?
Hey hey, I'm laughin' now, yeah yeah.

Verse 2:

I'll save my breath cause I know you're not worth it at all.
But, it's about time somebody showed you small you really are.
So I'll be the one say it, the only one to say it out loud.
Cause I've gotten around a few times more than anyone in the town.

Chorus

Bridge:

Honey, I'll find it funny when you fall down.
I'll be the one to say, the only one to say it out load.
Cause I've gotten around a few times more than anyone in this town.
Who's laughin' now, when you're cryin' out?
Hey hey!

Chorus
