All rise

A reading from the book of 'Sense Live' song fifty five Verse one, I ran twenty five miles blind through the wicked terrain

But due to my superior conditioning I maintained and survived

My deadly mission, it's crazy the world we live in there's no doubting

But armageddon, it ain't coming in this year '2000
Me, I know two thousand million armies
Sprouting, spirits arousing
Kids from the burbs and public housing

With ten worlds to dwell from Buddhahood to Hell, check it
Miguel Angel, it seems my poppa named me very well It's necessary that we spread the love to every
If you touch the life of one, you touch the lives of plenty

So people, let the truth be known
We own the will and the way and so tell me what's this delaying
These are the latter days and benefits will be received
Only for the faithful who truly believe

This is for the faithful who truly believe
That Babylon is gone, you got everything you need
inside your palm
So sing songs of thanks and praise
These are the fatter days, the latter days

This is for the faithful who truly believe
That Babylon is gone, you got everything you need
inside your palm
So sing songs of thanks and praise
These are the fatter days, the latter days

When I appear I be the natural four divisions of the year
Spring, summer, fall, winter, lend me your ear
Got this mic her about to start a Renaissance

Unite all the colors of the world like Benetton

Keep the faith and move on, evolve, don't let it dissolve Everybody sees the breaks, problems were made to be solved

The power's in your palm, the future's straight ahead
Open with possibilities, focus, why be afraid?

Enter the unknown free, where life gives you surprises
Surprises give you life and your spirit energizes
Reaching new horizons, promoting the uprising
Rising above 'cause El Demonio be snuffin'

So people, let the truth be known
We own the will and the way and so tell me what's this
delaying
These are the latter days and benefits will be received
Only for the faithful who truly believe

This is for the faithful who truly believe
That Babylon is gone, you got everything you need
inside your palm
So sing songs of thanks and praise
These are the fatter days, the latter days

This is for the faithful who truly believe
That Babylon is gone, you got everything you need
inside your palm
So sing songs of thanks and praise
These are the fatter days, the latter days, in these latter days

We are the light of the world
May our light shine before men
That they may see the good that we do
And give glory to God

It's for the faithful
See this movin' in your area
Give thanks
Come on, come on
Give thanks
Give, give thanks
Give, give thanks
Give, give thanks
All rise

This is for the faithful who truly believe
That Babylon is gone, you got everything you need
inside your palm
So sing songs of thanks and praise

These are the fatter days, the latter days

This is for the faithful who truly believe
That Babylon is gone, you got everything you need
inside your palm
So sing songs of thanks and praise
These are the fatter days, the latter days

This is for the faithful
Babylon is gone
This is for the faithful
Babylon is gone
This is for the faithful
Babylon is gone
