All I can think of is how much you hurt me
Filled up with nothing got nothing to say
Don't feel like talking
So please just stop trying friendship.
Meant nothing to you I can see

Hide in the dark from the light, safe on my own sleep tonight won't find it's way to the outcast of dreamville
Pray as I cover my eyes.

Trying to understand why you are crying
I thought you said you wanted to move on.
You took what was given so freely and broke it.
I hope you never forget what you've done....
Maybe we can start again
I don't want this to end.
