We used to laugh, we used to play
Why did things have to go and change
I made you laugh, you made me cry
If you only knew my feelings over you
You held my hand as we walked to class
I can't believe we didn't last
I thought we were the best of friends
I guess we found out in the end

The first day that we met, I was so in to you
But now you're gone and I'm sitting here all alone...
Where did you go

I'll always remember the times we had
The fun we shared it was always rad
Separation of relation
Never worked out...just out right
The pain of leaving or being left
Sometimes leaves a feeling of regret
But push on through I know we'll be fine
Cause in the end we weren't wasting our time
Now what should I do and where should I go
