May the truth be told in lies you can choose what really matters.

Nothing you do will change them, just let the stupid run their course.

Where in the world is all our freedom
Is it in the oil hidden beneath the sands of Iraq?
The war's almost over, the war's almost over
but the next one starts tomorrow

World War Three
God and Country.
It's coming for you
Republicans have a plan to rule the world
Well, the democrats just wish that they were cool

Can you see the cloud of confusion hanging over the head of our nation
Give a hand to the troops that serve us.
Some of them we'll never get to see again.
Where in the world are our leaders
Are they in the the oil hidden beneath the sands of Iraq?
The war's almost over the war's almost over
but the next one starts tomorrow.

I don't believe that we should go to war.
I don't believe in wasting human lives.
I don't believe that we should go to war
I don't believe in wasting human lives...lies lies lies
