(Mick Jagger - Keith Richards)

I met a ginsalt barroom queen in Memphis
She tried to take me upstairs for a ride
Then she had to have me right across her shoulder
'Cause I just can't seem to drink you off my mind.

Oh, those honky tonk women
Give me give me give me the honky tonk blues.

I later did the same in New York City
I had to pull out of some kind of a fight
The lady then she covered me with roses
She blew my nose and then she blew my mind.

Oh, those honky tonk women
Give me give me give me the honky tonk blues.

--- Instrumental ---

Oh, those honky tonk women
Give me give me give me the honky tonk blues.

Oh, those honky tonk women
Give me give me give me the honky tonk blues...
