Well sir, on this album ladies and gentlemen.

We've done just about ever type song that we could think of tonight lot of our records. We'd like to do a good polka for you right now and here's one of my favorites.

We had a real great Mexican dinner here in Dallas tonight and I'll tell you it's my favorite food, I guess, if I had to pick anything that was one of my favorites. You get down next to pinto beans and cornbread and you're talkin' my language.

And I'm gonna have to do this one for you tonight and I want you to polka to this one. It's called "El Rancho Grande..."
