You, treat this like a game
But it's my heart
And it's breaking all because of you

The hour glass is running out
And your still trying to fill it up
But I lost hope, you should too

But this situation we're repeating
Overrated is what you made it
I'm all done and now I'm all out of time

What can I say?
What can I say?
When all you do is push me away
What will I say to you?
When it all comes down it
Seems like with every word we say
We're slowly fading away

You acted like you care
But you don't stop pretending
Cause you're hurting me

My first impressions disappear
Your tounge-tied words so insincere
You always do as you please

And this situation we're repeating
Overrated is what you made it
I'm all done and now I'm all out of time

What can I say?
What can I say?
When all you do is push me away
What will I say?
When it all comes down to it
Seems like with every word we say
We're slowly fading away

I can't talk to you(talk to you)

You never see my point of view, No!
Like I want you to (like I want you to, woah)
Feels like I always go unheard (unheard)
Because your actions speak louder than my words
That's why I always come back to

What can I say?
What can I say?
When all you do is (when all you do is) push me away
What will I say to you?
When it all comes down to it
Seems like with every word we say
We're slowly fading away

What can I say?
I'm fading away
What can I say?
I'm fading away
Away...
Oh! Cause it's my heart and
It's breaking all because of you
What can I say?
