(There's a new R&B in town)

(It's Diamond D)

[Diamond D]

Now, you might catch me at a party rhyming, talking shit on the mic

And sippin on some Bicardi Limon

That nigga Diamond, prone to shining cause I'm nice

I turn, men to mice walk around with the ice

On my necklace, in the 7, drivin reckless

Hon-ey you blew it if my CD ain't on your check list

See you should expect this so blow see it's the bro

Who gets the dough, on the low like Piss Capone

What you ain't know? Steady flow's my deposition

I bet you wishin you had it but you suffer from repetition

I bet you listen, I catch you slippin on some smoke

Crush your throat, plus your broke, your just a hoax

When it comes to this here, cause this year

I'm lettin competitors know, that whenever this predator goes

I leave foes on the verge, niggas see me on stage, lose the urge

My style merge together when words come together to spurge

My endeavors on meat, furs, and leathers I use verbs

Some better pronouns, you better go now

You don't wanna throw down seen how I knocked the other foe down

Yes-ter-day, seems niggas had less to say

Didn't wear your vest today, lets just say

Your reaction, resem-bles a threat

You get sweat (sweat) fuckin with the best kep

[Diamond D]
Hey, hey, to blows my declaration
Find a nest on mercury speculations
'97's the year no hesitations
Gold and platinum plaques for dec-o-ra-tions
In living color I squash the pooh puts Get vexed, like I'm hittin some new butt
And fade MC's like a crew cut
You do what?, not to the greatest and when you play this
Some Mercedes not even after a 3 year hiatus
The kid is still nice with his, tight with his
With no advice to give son, so suffice to this
To say I'm on my way, see ya paid
And you could catch us on belay chillin in Bombay
My palm stay holdin, federal reserve notes
I bet a few've your nerves broke in a tussle
I'm tryin to eat lunch with Russell, flex my muscle
While your busy bitchy, my record label doesn't hustle
Enough for me, it's tough to be in the spot light You froze under the hot light, and wonder why your pockets not right
I'm elevatin sip Moet and Bruce gone celebratin
Through the Bronx, acceleratin on private blocks
Nuthin about it stops like powdered rocks
Ve-ry addic-tive and I become vin-dic-tive Pains inflic-ted off foes, how it goes
I put the blows, on your weak ass flows, huh!
