[K. Terroribul]

I get Alzheimer's listen to your biblical writers and biters to fibbers like your motion picture script writers
Should I be pausin for a moment over lost sinners
Or givin chase toward the invisible tormentor
Who - permitted more false allegations than a forfeiter Don't get it wrong, cause existin manuscripts differ Ghostly disappeared into the mountainside Then reappeared to heap fear to keep the average rapper circumcised
How could this deal even commence nice When my rhymes just to keep a cent, higher than yo' list price
A proefficient, most extravagant rapper imaginable and different Still A&R's haven't listened and they're slow pokes With audacity to be rhymin with these grown folks?
Y'all newcomers got jokes Be polite, I was, I'm representin Bronx niggaz that's inspirers
Now competition seems quieter Forget the clues, I got critics sayin who's you?
Even rappers singin the blues if they ain't on they P's and Q's
I be the uhh.. lyrical lord almighty Top emperor want a demonstration BLAOW there you were
