In this place we lie
Cutting slightly in vain
Hoping and praying you'll remember my name
If only tonight, and only tonight
You'll write back here I swear I'm done

Take your advice 'cause it's easy to see
This so called romance never wanted me
If only tonight
And only tonight
You write back here, I swear I'll cut

Till crimson falls
Over the bedroom walls
So will you lay me down tonight
And we'll be better off today

2, 3, 4

Between you and I it's the 2 step I crave
Morbidly swaying to a dying refrain
If only tonight, and maybe tonight
You write back here
(I'm so sincere)

So will you lay me down tonight (tonight)
And we'll be better off today (today)
And I would die if you never got to know
But would it do more harm this way?
And we'll go

Wow

So will you lay me down tonight
And we'll be better off today
And I would die if you never got to know
But would it do more harm this way?
