"Almost Home"

My father called me up
He said "You better come home"
He heard from the doctor
"And I can't tell her on my own"

They found a dark spot
In your mothers chest
I try to hold it all together
But I'm such a mess

And all you lost, and all you gained
Sometimes things just can't stay the same
And all you lost, and all you gained
Sometimes things just can't stay the same

But I'm almost home
Right where I'm suppose to be
But I'm almost home
Won't you leave a light on for me
'Cuz I'm almost home

She used to take my photograph
Every first day of school
Used to teach me how to fight
So I would be nobody's fool

All I lost, all I gained
Sometimes things just can't stay the same

But I'm almost home
Right where I'm supposed to be
But I'm almost home
Won't you leave a light on for me
'Cuz I'm almost home

Under dark fear
Running down here
I know enough boy scared
Now or never found

Well I'm almost home

Right where I'm suppose to be
Well I'm almost home
Won't you leave the light on for
To shine on me
'Cuz I'm almost home (Can you shine on me)

Almost home
Right where I'm suppose to be (Right where I'm suppose to be)
Well I'm almost home (Can you shine on me)
Between familiar streets
'Cuz I'm almost home
