Early in the morning when I wake up
I'm feeling alright
I'm on the right side today
Glowing with a gusto
Feeling like a hero, hey
Even when I wanna turn away
Turn away my shame
I hear You saying no
How could you leave me
I make it easier

If the sky was falling (falling down)
(I bet You keep me alive)
Thought I heard You calling (calling out)
(Caught me by surprise)
Could You be all I ever wanted
Could You be all I needed
Could You be all I ever wanted
Could You be all I needed
Could You be

I don't know how to feel right now
Got me in the cloud
Getting harder to look down, but hey
The view from up here, it's like crystal clear, clear
And I seem to always want You around
Life was upside down
I was found in the lost and found
Topsy turvy, living real dirty
You picked me up, I was hurting

If the sky was falling (falling down)
(I bet You keep me alive)
Thought I heard You calling (calling out)
(Caught me by surprise)
Could You be all I ever wanted
Could You be all I needed
Could You be all I ever wanted
Could You be all I needed
Could You be

I feel good
Glad to get to know You better
Been reading Your scarlet letters
They helping me through whatever
You're pretty clever, might I add to it all
How You stood by me tall even when I dropped the ball
Went AWOL, for a small
Got me thinking this is all
Could this really be that all
Worth my everything and all
Should I stall, nah
You deserve a round of applause
Cause You've been my Tylenol
I just recognized it y'all

If the sky was falling (falling down)
(I bet You keep me alive)
Thought I heard You calling (calling out)
(Caught me by surprise)
Could You be all I ever wanted
Could You be all I needed
Could You be all I ever wanted
Could You be all I needed
Could You be
