"Bicycle"

You came out of a dream I'm on my bicycle
Over the bridge just where I thought of you
Near by the castle, it's raining tonight
But it doesn't matter
I should have waited
I should be anywhere but here
Oh I hate you now
Why can't you decide
You say it's all just a dream
I'm not someone
Who can you make you feel like the rainbow
On the ocean
On my bicycle over the bridge
I should have waited
I should be anywhere but here
Oh I hate you now
Why can't you decide
Oh I hate you now
Why can't you decide
