Long time ago
The times we had were so and so It was the worst days of your life So I called your home your so-called father was on the phone
He wasn't easy to ignore

But we're all happy cause the streets they're always there for us
And it's quite scary when you wake up in the same old
clubs
It's getting darker and I know this time wasn't meant
for us
So won't you please please please come back to me

But yesterday when i saw your eyes in a black haze
You didn't even know my name
So I walked on pretending that you still belong
But it will never be the same no more

But we're all happy cause the streets they're always
there for us
And it's quite scary when you wake up in the same old
It's getting darker and I know this time wasn't meant
for us

It's like a picture of a loved one in disguise or It's like finding something pretty in a jar of lies and If you want just hide your eyes behind your hair
But you can't see me then you can't find me anywhere

But we're all happy cause the streets they're always
there for us
And it's quite scary when you wake up in the same old
It's getting darker and I know this time wasn't meant
for us

Come back to me

Please please please
Please please please
