I came across, I came across
I came across a friend I didn't trust
I kissed his feet, I kissed his feet
And I broke his knees

I came across, I came across
I came across a friend I didn't trust
I looked into his eyes and I saw myself
I saw myself

I came across, I came across
I came across a friend I didn't trust
I kissed his feet and I broke his knees

I came across, I came across
I came across a friend I didn't trust
I looked into his eyes and I saw myself
I looked into his eyes and I saw myself
I looked into his eyes and I saw myself

I looked into his eyes
I looked into his eyes
I looked into his eyes

I came across, I came across
I came across a friend I didn't trust
I looked into his eyes and I saw myself

I came across, I came across
I came across a friend I didn't trust
I looked into his eyes and I saw myself
I saw myself

And I looked into his eyes and I saw myself

I saw myself
I saw myself
I saw myself
I saw myself
