You and I
Have a hard thing to describe
You have so much to live for
While I am just dying to stay alive

You and I
Have something you shouldn't try
You have an eye for fashion, darlin'
I'm sitting in my room and let the disc go by

So much to live for

Radio daylight, radio dark
Radio daylight, radio dark
Show me something new
Show me something new
Show me something new
Show me something new

You say things
I've only read in books
I been stuck here for ages
While you get younger and younger

So much to live for

Radio daylight, radio dark
Radio daylight, radio dark
Show me something new
Show me something new
Show me something new
Show me something new

Radio daylight, radio dark
Radio darkness and radio silent
Show me something new
Show me something new
Show me something new
Show me something new

So much to live for

Radio daylight, radio dark
Radio daylight, radio dark
Show me something new
Show me something new
Show me something new
Show me something new

Show me something new
Show me something new
Show me something new
