All my friends alcoholics, probably the same
They keep on staying in their bubble
And I can't keep myself out of trouble
I find every hard every month,
I fall apart

You say time it is moving
But that ain't true
See them faces are aging
And you're breaking faster
You're changing
Me I'm not growing older
I'm just the one
La la, la la, la la, la la

All my friends alcoholic, I'm definitely the same
All their faces are aging,
Oh I'm breaking faster, I'm changing
We are not growing older
We stay drunk
La la, la la, la la, la la

All my friends alcoholics, we stay drunk
All my friends alcoholics, we stay drunk.
