Falling Stars by Sick Of The Silence

Oh I, (x2)

I can see the stars falling down
Woah
I can see the shadow on the ground
Woah
And when the stars come out tonight
(I swear they will not they will not fly)
And when they blind your eyes gone by

I see the stars in you
Never thought I would catch them too
Maybe your wish come true
Baby your falling star

I see the stars in you
Never thought I would catch them too
Baby just me and you
Your my falling star

And when the possibilities
Hit me from the inside of sea
The light shining above of me

You'll always be the one for me

And when the stars come out tonight
(I swear they will not they will not fly)
And when they blind your eyes gone?

I see the stars in you
Never thought I would catch them too
Maybe your wish come true
Baby your falling star

I see the stars in you
Never thought I would catch them too
Baby just me and you
Your my falling star

& I see the stars in you
Never thought I'd catch them too
Maybe your wish come true
Baby your falling star

I see the stars in you
Never thought I would catch them too
Baby just me and you
Your my falling star
