This is the story of two things
Just like the rainbow of my dreams
It's over
This isn't the moutain just near by, or the tear before you cry
It's over now

(LETS GO)

And I say hey it's okay to feel afraid
What he has to say
It's okay
And I say hey it's okay to feel afraid
What he has to say
It's okay

All I wanted is the truth
But you swapped me with the guy in blue
Standing next to you
So then I had to get away
From this trauma out in vain
Just go away

And I say hey it's okay to feel afraid
What he has to say
It's okay
And I say hey it's okay to feel afraid
What he has to say
It's okay

And I say it's okay to feel afraid
What he has to say
It's okay
And I say hey it's okay to feel afraid
What he has to say
It's okay

Ohhhhh.
