Dance with me, baby, let me hear your voice
If I didn't wanna fall for you I'd never had a choice
Smear the makeup on my face and run your fingers
through my hair
I cannot keep my heart from you and I don't even care

Yeah, you turn me inside out
You make me shake and I can't stop
You give new meaning to drop dead gorgeous
And I'm about to drop

You are a song to me
And every note of every chord will set me free
There's no time before you came along
Three cheers for the end of twenty-one years
And nothing else is going wrong

Reverberate and complicate my evenings and my days
And I will only love you more and I will count the ways Dance with me and when you see my pulse beneath my skin
It's racing now, I don't know how to hold the burning in

You've taken from me my defenses
My will is under attack
And baby, when I wrap my arms around you
I feel the bones in your back

You are a song to me
And every note of every chord will set me free
There's no time before you came along
Three cheers for the end of twenty-one years
And nothing else is going wrong, going wrong

Oh yeah, your voice is like music
It's music to my ears
Oh yeah, your voice is like music
It's music to my ears

I'm not dying anymore, I'm alive, baby
I'm not dying anymore, I'm alive, baby
I'm not dying anymore, I'm alive, baby

I'm not dying anymore, I'm alive

Smear the makeup on my face and run your fingers
through my hair
I cannot keep my heart from you and I don't even care

Yeah, you turn me inside out
You make me shake and I can't stop
You give new meaning to drop dead gorgeous
And I'm about to drop

You are a song to me
And every note of every chord will set me free
There's no time before you came along
Three cheers for the end of twenty-one years
And nothing else is going wrong

Going wrong
Going wrong
Going wrong
