As I look out across the crowd I see so many faces!
And now I'm here, I still see many faces!
Faces that judged, faces of non believers!
And when you asked, I told you I'd achieve this!

There was some doubt in my mind!
But I was determined to prove all of you so wrong!
There was some space in my head!
But I was determined to prove to you all I'm the one!

And when it came down to it
The proof was there and clear
I was determined to prove to you that I'm the one
Just to make it clear

I need to make it clearer cause you can't seem to see it!
You thought I was a dreamer, maybe I was a dreamer!
But I'm the one who changed things, changed them all
for the better!
And when you tried to judge me I showed you I was better!

And when it came down to it
The proof was there and clear
I was determined to prove to you that I'm the one
Just to make it clear

In the shadows you hid from everything you tried to judge!
And that's including what I've done!

I know what I've accomplished and that is more than you expected!
And you expected nothing!

I know what I accomplished! [x3]

I know! I know!

I'm proud of what I accomplished!

I'm proud!
[x3]

What do you have to say now?!
Now!
What do you have to say now?!
To say, now?!

(Now, what do you have to say now?!...) [x3]
