"As Long As You Need Me"

Didn't have anything I could say
There no words to make it go away
Didn't have the answers to give to you
No rhyme or reason made it less true
Can't hide the sorrow in your eyes
Sometimes healing just takes time
As long as you need me
I'm gonna be here
I'll bring some laughter
To dry your tears
As long as you need me
You can hold me near
Til the pain disappears
You know I'm hear
Life can be hard, so hard to bear
And sometimes living seems so unfair
There's nothing to blame just the way that it is
One season fades and another begins
Can't hide the sorrow in your eyes
Sometimes healing just takes time
Love saves a heart that's torn
And hope can be reborn
