"Chasing After The Wind"

Visit "Chasing After The Wind" on MotoLyrics.com

All the time I wasted
Searching underneath the sun
For something I could call my own
But all the endless seeking
Left a void inside my heart
There was nothing to hold on to
Nothing else could play your part
Chasing after the wind
Running around in circles again
Chasing after the wind
Looking for a pleasure to call my friend
Chasing after the wind
Breaking Your heart every moment that I spend
Chasing after the wind
Wandering in the shadows
Waiting for a light to shine
Wishing I could find peace of mind
Somewhere in the distance
You were calling out to me
But like a fool I kept on clinging
To the things I did not need
Lord, I need Your wisdom
To help me break this chain of sin
'Cause I don't want to live this way again
