"Fearful Eyes"

Visit "Fearful Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

Hidden in the shadows of hypocrisy
To endure ten thousand abominations
Fearful eyes stare the killing machine

Imprisoned behind the white walls, faces of misery incarnated in the flesh
Of non human animals

Fearful eyes stare the killing machine
Fearful eyes window of a tormented soul
Anthropocentrism pull the strings of cruelty

Blood flows from eviscerated bodies
To fulfill the need of heartless consumption

We torture and we enslave for the profit of the master species

Watch the rise of the new Pandemonium ascending from the depths of Inhumanity
We bare the crown of crime
