"Following On"

Yeah, come what may I'll stand and say
That nothing can take hold that You are not controlling
Hurt knows my name, I've cried in pain
But I can see deep inside of me where I belong
Following on
Wherever You lead
Your love is there to carry me
Following on
And I believe
That Your faithful loving light is all I need
I will be
Following on
Now I will stay on the path You've made
Even though the darkness haunts me everyday
I made a choice to hear Your voice
Your perfect peace is keeping me where I belong
Time after time temptation calls
Trying to make me take a fall
But by Your power I am strong
And I keep on, yeah, I keep on
