"Foundations"

I found strength where I never thought I'd find!
I've found my way here and I know it's right this time!
You doubt me but I know where I will be!
I found my way here and I'm never looking back!

I'm still standing!

When my hand was out for help you were nowhere to be found!
Give me a reason why that recognition should go to you!

I'm standing on foundations that I built my own
surroundings
This is my reason!
These are my reasons I'm here!
And I have my eyes set on the path that is ahead of me
These are my reasons!

And I'm standing on foundations that I've built and I won't budge!
These are my reasons I lead myself, and my eyes are set on the future!

I'm standing on solid foundations
And I've told you once and I've told you twice and I'll tell you three times!
You never helped me so don't claim that you did
And I can't believe that you ever doubted me!

I'm standing on foundations that I built my own
surroundings
This is my reason!
These are my reasons I'm here!
And I have my eyes set on the path that is ahead of me
These are my reasons!

These are my reasons I lead myself!
My own foundations are strong enough!
I will never take, never take any steps back!
I will always have my eyes set on the future, forget the past!

Forget it!
