Working tirelessly to prove to them that I am worth something! (something!)
No matter what I do, I always go unseen!
No matter what I do, I'm always overlooked!
I'm always overlooked!

How can you seem to be ahead of them yet always
seem to be last in line?!
I see this day to day, but I can't change their ways!
How can so much work be overlooked?!
Overlooked!

It's sad to see so much reward for feet that don't make prints!
How can a man achieve so much yet always seem to be overlooked?!
Overlooked!
Yeah!
Overlooked!

How can you seem to be ahead of them yet always
seem to be last in line?!
I see this day to day, but I can't change their ways!
How can so much work be overlooked?!
Overlooked!

This is my triumph!
My chance to show of just how much it took to let you know!
I know within myself, I know within myself
That I am now a better man!
A stronger person, I took my chance!

And now I've found myself!
And now I've found myself!
