"Make Me"

I always get so jumbled
When my humanness takes hold
It's so hard to remember
Just to let go
God, You gave me wisdom
But I've used it sparingly
And like a fool I fall
My pride keeps tripping me
Tomorrow seldom changes
The way my mind revolts
All the inspirations
Seem to sit unpeeled
Waiting for their moment
To shine beneath the sun
Waiting for a day
That hasn't yet begun
Make me holy
Make me pure
Make me clean
Make me Yours
Make me humble
Make me see
All that You've
Made me to be
Oh, Father, make me
My mind becomes entangled
Beneath a web of doubt
Questioning the question
Of what I am about
Slow to make decisions
Slower yet to change
Stuck under a blanket
That can suffocate
