When I lose myself in sweet communion
I can hear Your voice wherever I am
While I'm on this earth
So far from heaven
No matter where I'm standing
When my heart is in your hands
There is no higher place
There is no higher place
There is no higher place under this sky
There is no higher place
(When I feel You near me)
No higher place
(Nothing else compares)
No higher place
Under this sky
When I give myself
To You completely
I can close my eyes
And see what You see
Then I understand
How much You love me
And I know when I'm beside You
Just as close as I can be
When my strength is low
You call to me
You let me know
When I'm on my knees
