"When I Consider"

When I consider Your tenderness
I am reminded of this
Whenever I fail, Your grace will prevail
I know You love me no less
When I consider Your tenderness
When I consider Your righteousness
I am reminded of this
That I don't deserve this love of such worth
I know Your mercy exists
When I consider Your righteousness
When I consider Your faithfulness
I am reminded of this
When my strength is gone You carry me on
I know in You I can rest
When I consider Your faithfulness
When I look deep into Your eyes of love
When I remember the price that You paid
When I consider all that You are
All else fades away
When I consider Your holiness
I am reminded of this
You're calling me to surrender to You
I know I cannot resist
When I consider Your holiness
When I consider Your holiness
