Tears are wasteful in this drought
Wind strips the soil and brings doubt
Heart full of heavy
Belly sick with burden
Scorched I breath

Fears are hurtful on this route
Pain numbs the soul and lashes out
Set fire to the heart
A world torn apart
Scorched I breath

We walk dignified and carry on in beauty
We walk dignified and carry on in beauty

Desperate not to feel from all that's real
Endless paths to run and hide
Set fire to the past, these moments won't last
Scorched I breath

We walk dignified and carry on in beauty
We walk dignified and carry on in beauty
We walk dignified and carry on in beauty

See it in the eyes deep down inside ...It's time to heal
How can one heal when told not to feel.... The past repeats
Hey I'm here for you. Yes I'm hurting too... It's time to heal
Walk dignified Carry on in beauty

We walk dignified and carry on in beauty
We walk dignified and carry on in beauty
We walk dignified and carry on in beauty
We walk dignified and carry on in beauty
We walk dignified and carry on in beauty
