I never knew that there was such a sight...
Still I have seen the look inside her eyes
And there was nothing that I wanted more
Except for everything we're fighting for

You're breaking me down
You're leaving me out
You're breaking me down
It's like time's running out

I always cared about the things you hide
But you would never show me what's inside
Stop trying to point the finger with your blame
Cause you're the one who shouldn't play this game

You're breaking me down
You're leaving me out (You're leaving me out)
You're breaking me down (Your breaking me down)
It's like time's running out

Don't walk away
Don't push away

You're breaking me down
You're leaving me out
You're breaking me down
It's like time's running out
