"Defeated"

A mind that's torn to pieces
Lives by flashes of past and future
Uncertainty took care of my being
Tears apart every bit of a dream

Haunted by millions of evil feelings
Martyred by some lack of courage
Consumed by this flaming torture
Defeated, burned by a killing vulture

You're the dream breaker! Killing our dreams!
You're the mind maker! Killing our dreams!

Filthy liar and deceiver life seems to be
For some reason I try to step out
But other reasons demand me to step in
Brain damage and barely awaking!

You're the dream breaker! Killing our dreams!
You're the mind maker! Killing our dreams!

I wasn't made to lie
I wasn't made to deceive
Cos even if I would
Cos even if I tried,
Where could I be?
How could I be?

You're the dream breaker! Killing our dreams!
You're the mind maker! Killing our dreams!
