Look!
Look at the trees on the ground
Look!
Look at the faces without a smile
Look!
Look at the faceless minds we see

Look for the hope or some sanity!
In this mystery!

Don't you understand what this means?
This is the end of all things!

Look!
Hide, because evil always seems to live
Look!
Hidden and disguised in the shadows of the night!

Look for the hope or some sanity!
In this mystery!

Don't you understand what this means?
This is the end of all things!

Between good and bad we dance!
Instead of running let us pray...

Look!
Look for some trust in some stranger's eyes
Look!
Good luck for you cos the Devil never dies!

Don't you understand what this means?
This is the end of all Things!
