I was your golden sunshine
Your sweetest innocence
The bright light in your rainy days
A warm place on the return home

Listen to the morning birds
And how they sing for you
Will you grab me one, painted blue?

Listen to the morning birds
And how they sing for you
Will you grab me one, painted blue?

Now your tears are ocean sized
Made from the saddest sunset
You have streets of memories
Shining on your face!

Listen to the morning birds
And how they sing for you
Will you grab me one, painted blue?

Listen to the morning birds
And how they sing for you
Will you grab me one, painted blue?

But you're losing your smile on the road to sadness
Don't you ever let her hold your heart
Make stars of your tears and let them go
They will find their way to me!

Listen to the morning birds
And how they sing for you
Will you grab me one, painted blue?

Listen to the morning birds
And how they sing for you
Will you grab me one, painted blue?

My Perfect Blue...
