You made your promise last winter
When everything seemed dark and grey
Your cynic and false self-confidence
Will take your dreams! Go away!

Eyes asleep all night
My hand will grab you
No one will save you now
Hide or run, the midnight run!

Sickness or joy? I don't believe you!
You are all no more than utopia
You'd better care for your existence
Before I prevent you from appearing!

Eyes asleep all night
My hand will grab you
No one will save you now
Hide or run, the midnight run!

Those evil eyes that hunt you down,
Down to that horrifying destiny
Into the burning fire of hell
You will descend my friend!

Eyes asleep all night
My hand will grab you
No one will save you now
Hide or run, the midnight run!
