Here I am
Alone in the dark
Nobody is here
Nobody, just me
This is the place where I belong
And when I'm alone I feel so strong
My heart is frozen
And that's why this place is chosen

I just can't take it when it's light
'Cause when it's light I have to fight
Or else my heart will burn
And I don't wanna love again

Here I am
Alone in the dark
I cared about love
But now I don't care anymore
Cause my past is a mess
Now the dark is the best
I never hated before
But now I can't go back

Here I am
Alone in the dark
Nobody thinks of me
And that's why I like it so much
Cause else they hurt me every time
But now the control is all mine
There happened something awful
That's why I became a beast
