You think that you're some one special
But that isn't so
It's not because you have money that you can buy your friends
I don't love you, I 'don't like you, I don't wanna see you,
I hate you
I'm gonna tell you this just one time

You mean nothing
Nothing to me
You are nothing
You can't buy me

You are ugly
Nobody wants you, they want just your gifts
They use you, we hope you die! So we can get your money
When you travel to Sweden I hope your plane will crash
I know it sounds hard but now you knooooow that

You mean nothing
Nothing to me
You are nothing
You can't buy me

(Solo)

You're lonely
But you don't notice, why did I even talk to you
The only friend you got is yourself
I am going to say this for the last tiiiiiiime

You mean nothing
Nothing to me
You are nothing
You can't buy me
