La la la la....

Hey boy, I wanted to be with you
But tell me, why can't I be
And, so tell me, what the worse thing can happen
Tell me

I need someone to protect me
As you can see I could be hurt
I just can't satisfy the way you want me to

Yeah, yeah, yeah

By now, I really needed this life
For I - For I
Couldn't get any stronger if I can't make you love

But could this mean it's the end of our love
Just give me the reasons (give me the reasons) why can't I be with you
Does this means you love somebody else

Tell me why, oh tell me why I can't be with you
You know I need someone to protect me just like every other people does
Well, from now on, I won't bother you

But I really needed someone to care and someone who could be good enough to protect me
Right now, I'm o-o overprotected
But I really need someone, someone to protect me (Someone to protect me)
And when I say someone, I mean you

You know I can't be perfect
Do you know who could ever be

I need someone to protect me
As you can see I could be hurt
I just can't satisfy the way you want me to

And I really need someone to protect me
I really need someone to protect me
