I've been thinking about you

And the pain you can't break through

I can't give you the answers

But I believe in you

Don't tell me you given up

No don't tell me your truth

Every vision and dream

All the lives you've seen

It's all, it's all inside

Like the light in the sky

Shines through your eyes

It's all, it's all inside

You could wait for an angel

You could wait for the stars to fall

All you want's is a miracle

But you don't need it at all
