Take a glimpse of the world that is turning neighborhoods that are also battlegrounds
Gunshots are disturbing the silence
As you hear all the screams from the sirens
Won't you take me from the underground baby
Won't you take me to a place where we belong
No hatred no wars are among us
Where we can stand on one ground together
Won't you take my hand I'll take you there
To a place where the light is always on Where all your dreams will come true
A valley of green and a sky of blue
Just hold my hand I'll take you there
To this place I call home
Grass is green and the air is clean
This place we belong
Missiles launched to disturb the silence
As you see children playing through war zones
People making their shortcuts shorter
Many starving for revolution
Does it seem how this world's gone crazy
People suffer for their own true freedom
Back to back as the power struggles
One on one as they claim the mountain
Take a walk with me away from there
Away from crime and deception
A clear mind will drive away this pollution
They violins play and the trumpets sound
The angels fly, the time is near
Let's get away want to escape
I've seen it before I've heard it again
About one man's evil master plan
Opposition, precision, a travesty is told
Divine intervention, a price to be sold
Humanity outbreaks by making their mistakes
This conflict unfolds as history goes on 9 11 2001
4 20 1999
4 29 1992
What's wrong with me
What's wrong with you

These battles we create, wars that we make
We cannot let this go to this place I call home
One nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all
