Why do you say "It's so hard to believe"
In this world, your sins you try to justify
From reality, with brutakity
We hear the gossip, we see the signs
We are so puzzled in this world
These questions in my mind unfurled
I know you are the one who'll
Find the missing pieces to my life
Breathing the air, only time will tell
Consume your thoughts, redeem your fear
Before it's too late, forgetting all the hate
Stand back, and beware of the attack
Feel the crossfire between the lies
Because you know that the devil is no friend of mine
Now you see, a room with a different view
Now you see, the prism that's alive in you
Who you see
What you breathe
What you need
All of my thoughts, all of these words
Comming directly from the bottom of my heart
When you see the light come shining through
When you see the eyes look down on you
One day you'll wake up and realize
