"forget you"

if you lose
lose your way you know i'll be there to help you get back on the easy road
all i want
all i want is to be
next to you forever

look at me
and say you don't love me truthfully and i'll try to forget you baby

but you'll know
you'll know i'll always love the light in your eyes
'cause the blue
is brighter than my sky and i'd swim in it forever

truthfully but i'll never forget you baby
