"get over her"

guess i've learned a lot these last few weeks i never expected my friends to turn on me the one i've got left and he's in love but not with me, cuz i'm not enough i tried so hard to win him over no such luck
cuz i'm not enough

what more do i have to do wake up and see what's right in front of you you're my best friend but we could be more if you'd just get over her
get over her

you've cried for me and i keep letting you go finally i realize what we have so now it's my turn to be your everything but first you have to let me all my songs have been for you i can play them you just have to ask

[chorus]

she's a thousand miles away and she loves somebody else you say you want to help me but you won't even help yourself

[repeat chorus]
