Vers:

Since I've met you, there's no time to waste
When I'm with you, standing face to face
There's just one thing to say
Our life is here to stay

Ref:

You're one of a kind
I'll do anything for you
We're holding the line
After all that we've been through

In a million ways I feel what we got is all for real
You're one of a kind, I'll do anything for you

Vers:

When I see you, my heart just skips a beat
When I met you, you made my life complete
All the elements may fall
But with you I have it all

Ref:

You're one of a kind
I'll do anything for you
We're holding the line
After all that we've been through

In a million ways I feel what we got is all for real
You're one of a kind, I'll do anything for you

Stick:

How was I to know
Lost and had to go
The the long way home would lead into your arms
When I'm with you, standing face to face

Ref:

You're one of a kind
I'll do anything for you
We're holding the line
After all that we been through

In a million ways I feel (that) what we got is all for Real
You're one of a kind, I'll do anything for you
