I see you through
I see you clearly
When you're (I see) around
When you are near me
I know your every doubt
I know your every fear
My dear

You seem relaxed
You seem so cool
Everybody loves
This dance you do
Your pop-rock-punk-funk ballet
Like there's nothing your way
Again

You're living on a time bomb
You're mind is like a time bomb
A five megaton
Load of emotion
Let it out
You're living on a time bomb
You're mind is like a time bomb
With potential to
Put rage into motion
Gotta do something quick
Tick tick tick tick!

(Back-vocal)
You're nice and calm
Don't cause a fuss
But on the inside
You're dangerous.

Boys don't cry
Boys just work
You won't complain
Even when you're hurt
Even when you're feeling sad
And need me to clear your head
Instead

You take your pose
You fake your smile
So reserved
So in denial
You more look like a doll
Who are you after all?
Do you know?

You're living on a time bomb
You're mind is like a time bomb
A five megaton
Load of emotion
Let it out
You're living on a time bomb
With potential to
Put rage into motion
Gotta do something quick
Tick tick tick tick!

Night begins to fall and then
You wish you were a child again
You wish you didn't leave your home
And set yourself on a time bomb

You're living on a time bomb
You're mind is like a time bomb
A five megaton
Let it out
You're living on a time bomb
You're mind is like a time bomb
With potential to
Put rage into motion
Tick tick tick tick! 2k.
